

House Resolution No. 2602

Whereas, the members of the Missouri House of Representatives hold in high esteem those Show-Me State youths who have admirably demonstrated their potential as true societal leaders through the excellence of their accomplishments thus far in life; and

Whereas, Matthew Blosser has attained considerable distinction as a student at Webster Groves High School of the Webster Groves School District in the Saint Louis metropolitan area; and

Whereas, Matthew Blosser recently enhanced his significant record of achievement when he was named one of the Top Five students in the 2004 senior class at Webster Groves High School; and

Whereas, Matthew Blosser is also to be commended for his participation in Missouri Scholars 100, Band for three years, Tennis for four years, and Missouri Scholars Academy in 2002; and

Whereas, in addition to his curricular and extracurricular school activities, Matthew Blosser is well respected for his three-year-long association with the Boy Scouts of America program, during which time he served as Senior Patrol Leader for one year, and for his membership in First United Methodist Church of Webster Groves where he is in the Youth Group and on the Board of Ministries; and

Whereas, the beloved son of Brian and Elizabeth Blosser, Matthew Blosser is justifiably proud to be known as the brother of Kevin and Emily and the grandson of James and Judy Hill and John and Dorthy Blosser; and

Whereas, the Webster Groves School District educates more than four thousand students through the knowledge, skills, and expertise of three hundred sixty-six certificated staffers in eight elementary, one middle, and one high schools:

Now, therefore, be it resolved that we, the members of the Missouri House of Representatives, Ninety-second General Assembly, join unanimously to applaud the academic and personal achievements garnered during the past four years by Matthew Blosser and to convey to him this legislative body's heartiest congratulations for being one of the Top Five students in the graduating class of 2004 and our best wishes for continued success for many more years to come; and

Be it further resolved that the Chief Clerk of the Missouri House of Representatives be instructed to prepare a properly inscribed copy of this resolution in honor of Matthew Blosser of Webster Groves High School.
